

Discovering Justice – An Evening of Mock Trials

With the support of Anderson & Kreiger volunteer attorneys, Nativity Prep students concluded their 11 week after school mock trial program on December 11th by presenting their case before federal judges as well as juries made up of community members. The Discovering Justice program allows students to be given the extraordinary opportunity to learn how to conduct legal analysis of a case and then work with attorneys to prepare and present their case in a mock trial.