

Anderson & Kreiger Environmental and Insurance Practices Recognized by 2020 Chambers USA

Anderson & Kreiger LLP is pleased to announce that the Environmental Practice and Insurance Practice, as well as four Partners, were recognized in the 2020 Chambers USA Massachusetts edition.

Our Environmental practice scored highly for its representation of municipalities in environmental litigation and enforcement matters. The group was noted for its quality energy practice, covering a wide range of compliance and permitting matters and its extensive capabilities in waterfront and wetland matters.

Clients said:

- “Anderson & Kreiger provides excellent service.”
- “Its lawyers are bright people who have a high level of competence and are very knowledgeable,” reports a source.
- “Its members are responsive, thoughtful and their work product is consistently very good,” says an interviewee.

Attorney recognitions include:

Arthur P. Kreiger, Environment in Massachusetts (Band 2). Art has over 35 years of experience handling environmental and land use work. Chambers sources highlight his work in the solid waste area and report: “He is smart, decisive and knows his area of the law very well.”

Colin Van Dyke, Environment in Massachusetts (Band 3). Chambers’ sources said Colin is “very capable, personable and excellent to deal with.” His environmental practice encompasses compliance and cleanup issues.

Chambers describes our Insurance practice as an established insurance group representing policyholders and insurers in the full range of coverage disputes, assisting on complex regulatory questions and bad faith litigation, and regularly acting on behalf of insurers working with healthcare clients.

A client commented:

- “They are knowledgeable, experienced, and cost-effective. They have a wealth of experience in insurance coverage/defense and often have researched our specific issue for another client, leading to cost-effective advice and counsel. They are responsive and meet our deadlines.”

Attorney recognitions include:

Steve L. Schreckinger, Insurance in Massachusetts (Band 2). Steve provides valuable representation to corporate and carrier clients in high-stakes coverage, bad faith, and malpractice disputes. Clients appreciate his “outstanding legal skills” and “very good substantive knowledge.”

Tamara S. Wolfson, Insurance in Massachusetts (Band 3). Tamara is “very thorough and uniquely helpful” and she possesses “a great deal of experience in evaluating unusual coverage issues,” according to one client. She is particularly well versed in cybersecurity and privacy issues in the insurance industry.

Chambers USA ranks the top lawyers and law firms across all the United States of America. Chambers and Partners rankings are assessed by an experienced team of researchers. Chambers rankings are compiled through assessment of a firm’s work and opinions from external market sources, with an emphasis on client feedback. Firms and lawyers need to demonstrate sustained excellence in order to be ranked in the guide.
