

Melissa Allison was a Panelist on Airport Council North America's Legal Webinar Primer on Part 16 and Part 13

Melissa Allison was a panelist on ACI-NA's Legal Affairs webinar primer on Part 16 and Part 13. The panel discussed FAA investigatory proceedings pursuant to 14 CFR Parts 13 and 16, what the airport lawyer should expect, how airports should respond to complaints, and practice tips to keep in mind.

Melissa is a Partner at Anderson & Kreiger, where she focuses her practice on airport regulatory compliance and complex litigation. Melissa has worked with airport clients nationwide for over 15 years. She has successfully defended airport clients in connection with Part 13 complaints, Part 16 proceedings, and significant litigation. Melissa regularly advises clients on compliance matters, including disadvantaged business enterprise compliance, PFC eligibility, disposal of land, implementation of air carrier incentive programs and countless revenue use issues. Melissa frequently has been invited to speak at ACI-NA conferences on compliance issues and pending litigation.
