

Carmen Ortiz was a Panelist on Massachusetts Lawyers Weekly Highlighting Best Practices for Conducting Workplace Investigations Remotely

Earlier this month, Carmen Ortiz was a panelist on Massachusetts Lawyers Weekly's webinar "How to Conduct Effective Workplace Investigations Remotely".

During the discussion Carmen and the other panelists discussed key issues, including:

- Technology challenges;
- Attorney-client privilege/confidentiality issues;
- Interview techniques;
- Assessing credibility in a remote setting;
- The impact of COVID-19; and
- Data preservation.

Carmen Ortiz has extensive experience as a trial lawyer, investigator and crisis manager. She focuses her practice on internal investigations, corporate compliance, civil litigation, government enforcement actions and white collar criminal defense. Carmen also has significant experience with sexual harassment investigations and claims, and high-stakes employment litigation.
