Overview

Dana, a summer clerk of Anderson & Kreiger in 2018, is a 2019 graduate of Boston College Law School, where she served as Chair of the Alumni Relations and Bar Association Committee and as an Environmental Law Society representative. At graduation, she earned the title of Public Interest Designation Fellow and received an award for pro bono excellence. During law school, Dana interned at the Massachusetts Department of Environmental Protection where she focused on greenhouse gas emissions and hazardous material release prevention. She also pursued her interest in providing aid to non-profit and for profit start-up businesses with the Boston College Entrepreneurship and Innovation Clinic.

Before starting law school, Dana worked in Prague, Czech Republic for four years, including as the international sales manager for an International Real Estate Investment Firm, and as an English teacher.
