A&K is the preeminent law firm in Massachusetts in the field of public law. We represent over 150 municipalities and public agencies across the country – from Los Angeles to Ipswich – on a wide range of matters. A&K is uniquely situated to provide our public sector clients with sophisticated legal services to compliment the high level of public service our clients provide to their communities.

These services include assistance with land development and preservation, developing regulations, executing procurements, environmental compliance and enforcement, voting and governance issues and representing these entities in litigation.
